A gift in your Will could help safeguard
the future of our Armed Forces community.

The Royal British Legion was founded in 1921 to support those who served during the First World War. Today, we are still on hand to help Service men and women, veterans and their families facing many of the same issues as veterans did 100 years ago.

Your legacy could help us to:

- Continue running The Battle Back Centre (Lilleshall), supporting injured veterans through their recovery with adaptive sports and adventure activities
- Open more specialist Dementia Care lodges for elderly veterans
- Keep our Handy Van service on the road, helping elderly and disabled veterans to remain living independently in their own homes
- Continue providing emergency grants and financial advice to Service leavers facing unemployment, financial difficulties or homelessness.

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

FREE WILL-WRITING SERVICE

The Royal British Legion is a member of The National Free Wills Network, which means we could help you to make your Will free of charge.

If you need to write your Will, we can put you in touch with a solicitor in your area who can draw one up for free, through The National Free Wills Network. The Legion then covers the cost of writing your Will, at a discounted rate.

How it works

1. Return the form enclosed to us, or call Nicola Hall on 020 3207 2253 to let us know you are interested in this service or email nhall@britishlegion.org.uk
2. You will receive a letter detailing the six participating solicitors closest to you.
3. You make an appointment with one of those firms to draw up or amend your Will.
4. The Royal British Legion pays for your Will to be written, at a special rate agreed with the solicitor.

Please note that this is a limited offer and only applies to simple Wills (that is, Wills that do not have to deal with any complex issues).

For full terms and conditions and if you have any queries please contact Nicola Hall on 020 3207 2253

There is no obligation to remember the Legion in your Will, but we hope you will feel inspired to do so.

As the nation's custodian of Remembrance, it is our pleasure to offer this service to our supporters and help you remember those close to you. You do not have to include the Legion in your Will in order to use this service, so please do not feel under any obligation to do so.

However, if you do decide to leave a legacy to the Legion you could play a crucial role in safeguarding the future of our Armed Forces community. Your legacy could help us support Service men and women, veterans and their families, for the rest of their lives.

"It's a huge comfort to know that the Legion's support will never stop."

Ex-Army Commando Mark Stonelake lost his left leg after he was injured in Afghanistan. The Legion helped him and wife Donna install a wet room, so that he could shower safely. To this day, it gives Mark great hope to know we'll always be there.
