Matters Arising

- All photos have now been scanned and originals returned.
- Dave will ask Bob Mansfield about the 50p Branch membership that we are entitled to from all new memberships.
- John has provided us with a page on the Club website for minutes and relevant information.
- Yvonne will keep us all up to date with the next Armed Forces Day.
- The Treasurer situation is now in hand and Judy has been given the banking paperwork.
- The Standard Bearer's sling and bucket situation - sling is still out of stock.

Treasurer's Report

Balance of the Community account at 3rd May is £10,486.36

Balance of the Business account at 2nd Aug is £1,216.41

Secretary's Report

- AGM date agreed for 25th November as we must have it between the 1st Oct and 30th Nov.
- Sara showed everyone the scanned Legion and military photos.

Poppy Appeal

- Date is still set for 2 November, with the date in the Club diary.
- Dodgy Bob can't do it, Vision would be £1000 which would be too much John will speak to them about maybe doing next year, depending on the price.
- Dave will speak to Katie's Karaoke to see if she is available if not a disco will be booked.
- Yvonne will do a cash draw on the evening.
- Fancy dress was agreed.

Next committee meeting arranged for 25th November following the AGM

Meeting closed at 8.50pm
